✎ Rosemary, I'm saddened to hear of Dicks passing. He was a great guy, I loved to come over on Sundays and eat cheese and talk politics and hear tales from the man. Although he was weak in body that mind was clear as a bell. The cul de sac on Wildwood ct. was never the same after you two left, I will always miss you both. I pray the Lord will comfort you in your time of sorrow. Love

✎ Dear Rosie,
 I'm so glad I got to meet you and Dick at Ben and Irene's wedding. When was that? Just the other day (1994). Deanna, Maurie, and I all wish you the best. We had a little prayer at church Sunday for Dick.

✎ Dear Aunt Rosemary,
 On behalf of my wife and my children, I, too, extend our deepest sympathy. Although we, also, have been distant through the years, thanks to my Dad - and the care and love that he and his brother had for Uncle Dick - we have truly felt part of your family too. Our love and prayers: Thom, Tina, Melissa, Thom Jr. and Amanda

✎ Dear Aunt Rosie,
 You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I didn't have many opportunities to see Uncle Dick over the years, and I wish we could have shared more than a name. I do know that he was a kind and wonderful man that my dad held very dear in his heart. They are together again, sharing great memories. All our love: Katie, Joe, Martha and Emily

Dear Rosemary,
Dick's passing is a huge loss for you, your boys, and their families. I pray you are comforted knowing the amazing heroic care and support you gave him these many years.
I miss him. Dick was an important part of my growing up.
I hope you remain strong and well.

Love and best wishes,

Bob

Dear Aunt Rosie,

Our prayers go out to you and your entire family at this difficult time. Uncle Dick was beloved by my late father, Ben. I'm certain they are sharing old stories now. We celebrate Uncle Dick's long and good life. God Bless, John, Beth, Oliver, Hays, Wil and Penn

Rosemary, my thoughts and prayers are with you on the loss of Richard. I was privileged to know him and work with the both of you during our annual visits. I hope he was able to take that last ride around the golf course in Ponte Vedra.

Sally sends her condolences.
