

Merry Christmas, 2022

Dear friends and family members,

We hope this [slightly late] letter finds you happy and well. Highlights included Maurie and Deanna hearing Paul McCartney live in Oakland for Mother's Day.

The dogs have their own ideas about which seats are OK for them.

Bear thinks this easy chair is for him.

Mattie thinks the front seat is for her. Notice she wears her sunflower bandana in support of Ukraine

These cats know where to go by following the picture.

Winter means the hummers need food to stay warm.

Deanna has a couple of these.

We put in this rail on front and a short one in back.

My sister Linda found these.

Family shots.

Deanna and Maurie.

Michael's undergrad school got a new name.

In April we went to Kauai.

The dogs stayed home and texted us.

"Hi Mom; Hi Dad."

Work on the camp trailer continued

New oak veneer on a cabinet door,

We celebrated Maurie's birthday in Las Vegas.

Maurie enjoying a display.

We share the house with these friends.

Deanna's greenhouse window.

We took a little glamping trip for our anniversary.

"Button," out vintage Airstream.

We had Thanksgiving dinner with Maurie here at home.

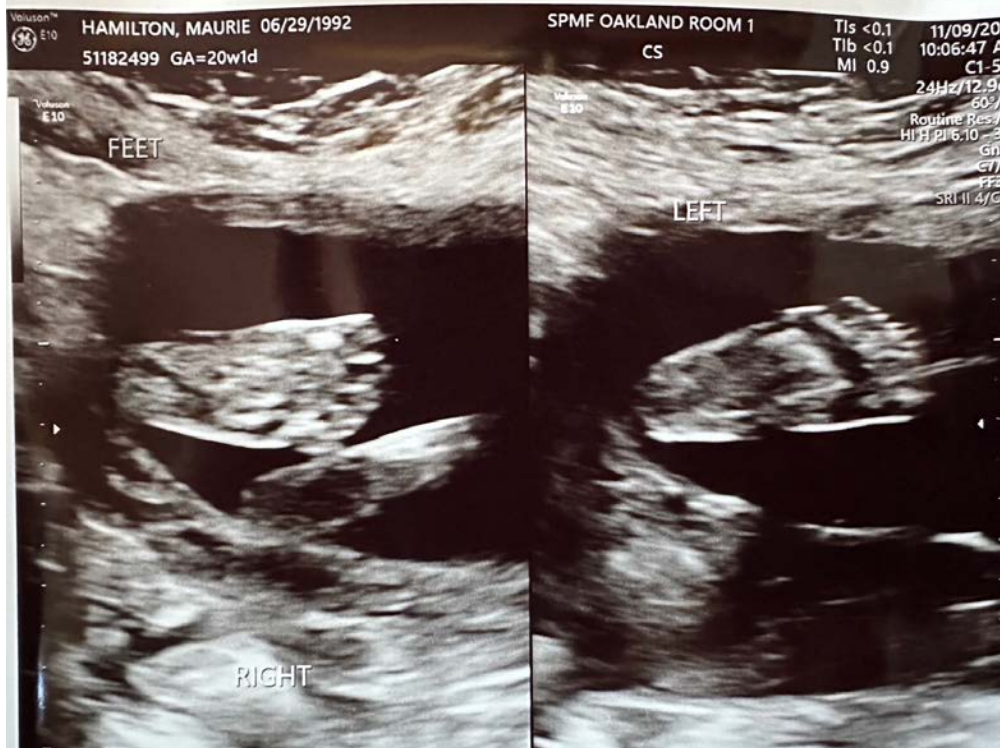

Nicely done turkey.

Yes indeed; Maurie is going to have a baby!

Here is her little head.

And her cute little feet.

Mother and daughter with granddaughter due in March.

Have a safe and wonderful Christmas and New Year,

--Michael, Deanna, Mocha, Rajah, Cinnamon, Nutmeg, Mattie, and Bear
